Sample (invented child)

Week of 8 September. Practical life: dry pouring, 3 days, two-hand carry steady by Thursday. Sensorial: pink tower presented Tuesday; working with few misplacements, self-corrects. Language: sand paper letters m, a, t - traces with two fingers, names the sound when asked. Mastered: none this week. Family note: She chose pouring after arrival three mornings and stayed 12-18 minutes. Next: invite the pouring extension when the tray looks easy.

What this sample does

- ☐ Names materials
- ☐ Uses Presented / Working / Mastered without inflating Mastered
- ☐ Gives the family one picture of concentration
- ☐ States a next invitation, not a personality verdict
